Taran: I was three when my mom left. She got hooked on meth.

Super: These are real people.
Not actors.

Taran: She was messed up. I missed her…I felt like I was all alone. My grandparents took care of me…while my mom tried to get help. I had to grow up fast. She's a good person. Actually…she's an amazing person. She's here…

And she's been clean for six years today.
Surprise!
Happy anniversary, Mom. I love you.

Super: Robin.
Clean 6 years.

VO: Your loved one on meth isn't a lost cause. They have you. For help visit methresources.gov or call 800-662-HELP
