(music under)

Visual: Meth placed on a scale, tips over photo which tips over guitar, record rolls out of crate, knocks lamp off table, books hit vase, vase shatters on back of TV, causing TV to explode. Glass shards from TV fly at wedding cake, cake explodes into forefront shattering champagne glasses. Snippets of images speed up to portray chaotic mess. Teddy bear catches fire, bib catches fire, table of childish things catches fire. Ends on remnants of burning plastic.

VO: Well meth took away everything I loved. It took away my family, my hobbies. All those things that made my house a home. Meth made my life a living nightmare. I couldn't believe how fast I was addicted. I was high all the time, I never slept. I stole from my friends. I even missed the birth of my son.

Meth took it all away, just like that.

Super: Meth took it all away, just like that.
