

Communications Coordinator

The Lawrence-Douglas County Health Department is currently seeking a Communications Coordinator to join its well-trained, motivated work force.

Why the Lawrence-Douglas County Health Department?

- Building a healthier Douglas County is central to the Health Department's mission and responsibility. We have committed to providing leadership around the completion of a community health assessment and improvement plan that sets our future direction.
- People who work at the Lawrence-Douglas County Health Department say their work gives them a feeling of accomplishment and would recommend the department to their friends as a good place to work.
- Located in Lawrence, Kansas, just 35 miles west of Kansas City, the vibrant university town is home to the University of Kansas and Haskell Indian Nations University. Nearby in scenic Baldwin City, is Baker University. Douglas County is home to 116,000 residents.

The ability to represent the Health Department while operating independently on time sensitive projects is a critical skill for the Communications Coordinator. We are looking for an experienced team-oriented professional who has demonstrated sound judgement, the ability to create consistent messages, and a strong work ethic, as this position works with a variety of internal and external customers. Work products vary widely from press releases, social media messaging, human interest writing, graphic design, photography and website content management all with the purpose of furthering the department's public health mission. Three years of experience in communications work and Bachelor's degree in mass communications, journalism, public relations or related field required.

We provide excellent benefits including health insurance, vacation and enrollment in the state's defined benefits retirement plan.

If you have a desire to work with our team of motivated and passionate public health professionals, apply today. At the Lawrence-Douglas County Health Department, you will be given the opportunity to make a difference and help improve the health of our community.
