

Kansas Department of Health and Environment
Radiation Control Program

Medical Materials: Radiation Topics

Tuesday, November 28, 2017

1:00-5:00 P.M.

Health Education Building G109

University of Kansas Hospital

3901 Rainbow Blvd, Kansas City, KS 66160

Medical Materials Radiation Topics: The Kansas Radiation Control Program is offering a four-hour training for medical users of radioactive materials. This training will cover topics including regulations, radiation safety, how to prepare for inspections, and radiation professional integration into population monitoring.

Target Audience:

- Nuclear Medicine Technologists
- Medical Physicists
- Radiation Safety Officers
- Supervisors

ASRT CE: ASRT continuing education credits (4) requested.

Register: Kansas TRAIN, <http://ks.train.org> course number 1072531, KDHE: Medical Materials Radiation Topics 2017.

Cost: There is no fee for the training. The cost to you is your time and travel.

Draft Agenda

1:00 Regulatory Overview: Medical Radioactive Materials

2:00 Materials Inspection Guidance

2:50 Break

3:10 Practical Radiation Safety

4:00 Radiation Response Volunteer Corps

4:50 Concluding Remarks

5:00 Adjourn