

Kansas Department of Health and Environment
Radiation Control Program

Medical X-Ray: Radiation Topics

Wednesday, November 29, 2017

8:00 A.M. - Noon

Health Education Building G109

University of Kansas Hospital

3901 Rainbow Blvd, Kansas City, KS 66160

Medical X-ray Radiation Topics: The Kansas Radiation Control Program is offering a four-hour training for medical X-ray users. This training will cover topics including regulations, how to prepare for inspections, mammography, and radiation professional integration into population monitoring.

Target Audience:

- Radiologic Technologists
- Radiation Safety Officers
- Supervisors

ASRT CE: ASRT category A continuing education credits (4) have been approved for this activity.

Register: Kansas TRAIN, <http://ks.train.org> course number 1072532, KDHE: Medical X-Ray Radiation Topics 2017.

Cost: There is no fee for the training. The cost to you is your time and travel.

Draft Agenda

8:00 Opening Remarks

Kimberly Steves, Radiation Control Program Director

8:10 Regulatory Overview: X-ray

Nicole Isherwood, RT(R)(CT), Environmental Specialist

9:00 X-ray Inspection Guidance

John Kratina, ARRT, RT(R)(T), M.Ed., Environmental Specialist

9:50 Break

10:10 Mammography

Jesse Woltje, RT(R), A.S. Radiologic Technology, B.A.S. Technology Administration,
Supervisor of X-ray and Mammography Compliance

11:00 Radiation Response Volunteer Corps

David Lawrenz, Environmental Specialist

11:50 Concluding Remarks

Noon Adjourn