

Aimed to meet the patients mental, physical, and spiritual needs, and considers dying as a normal part of life.

Able to Give support to members of the patient's family.

Able to assist the patient to have the best quality of life for as long as possible.

Able to address the needs of patients and families though a team based- approach, this also includes counseling.

Offered at patient's home, long-term care facility, assisted living facility, hospital, or clinic.

PALLIATIVE CARE IS...

Appropriate at any age and for patients in any stage of a serious life-limiting illness.

Likely covered by your regular medical insurance, this may include inpatient care and prescriptions. Contact your insurer to learn more.

Focused on relieving pain, reducing disease-related complications, and improving quality of life and can go with other life prolonging medications treatments.

WHAT IS PALLIATIVE CARE?

