

How to File a Delayed Certificate of Birth

The enclosed Delayed Certificate of Birth form is used to record a birth that occurred in Kansas and that for some reason has not been filed with the Office of Vital Statistics. If you are now 65 (or older) and are required to submit proof of age to qualify for retirement benefits, we recommend that you first contact your:

- Local Social Security office,
- Railroad Retirement Board, or
- Company that may be providing your retirement benefits.

Any of the above offices can advise you of their proof of age requirements. You may not be required to provide a delayed birth record. However, if you do need to obtain a Delayed Certificate of Birth, please follow the instructions below.

Requirements and Instructions

Please follow these instructions carefully – help us give you the best service in the shortest amount of time.

1. Complete the top half of the Delayed Certificate of Birth in black ink or use a typewriter.
2. Take the form to a notary public and sign your present legal name in the notary public's presence on the Signature of Registrant line. Note: If the registrant is under 18 years of age, a parent must sign the notarized document.
3. The notary will sign the certificate, indicate the commission expiration date, and apply the notary seal. This procedure will represent the sworn statement that the facts are true to the best of your knowledge.
4. Do not write anything anywhere else on the Delayed Certificate of Birth.
5. If the registrant is under 10 years of age: two documents (certified or original) are required to support the filing of the certificate in Kansas. The first document must show that the mother was in Kansas at the time of birth. The second document must show the registrant's name, date of birth, birthplace as Kansas and the name of at least one parent. All documentation is subject to examination and approval by the state registrar.
6. If the registrant is over 10 years of age: four documents (certified or original) are required to support the filing of the certificate in Kansas. Each document must show the date of birth or age of the registrant and must have been established at least 10 years before the date of the request or within three years of the registrant's date of birth. At least one document must show the registrant's birthplace as Kansas and one document must include the name of at least one parent. All documentation is subject to examination and approval by the state registrar.
7. When you have the:
 - ✓ Completed and notarized Delayed Certificate of Birth,
 - ✓ Documents necessary to prove age, birthplace, and parental information,

Then you must submit the original documents or certified copies of the original documents to the Office of Vital Statistics. Uncertified photocopies are not acceptable. All documents and certified copies of documents will be returned.

11. Medical, hospital, or dental record.

Why Proof is Necessary to file a Delayed Certificate of Birth

A birth certificate is a valuable document proving United State citizenship and age. A Delayed Certificate of Birth is only as valuable as the evidence used to prove facts of birth. That is why specific and particular types of evidence are required. The evidence has to be unaltered so that your delayed birth certificate is accurate and indisputable.
